A new Certificate of Membership will be issued with no redeemable value.
- (d) Special Membership – As the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, shall determine.
- (e) Income provided by redemption of memberships at reduced amounts as provided herein shall be used for capital improvements and other such projects as determined by the Board of Directors.
- (f) The time and manner in which the holder shall be paid the value of his certificate shall be redeemed in the chronological order in which the memberships terminate, and not before payment of the membership fee is received from a new member replacing the retiring member.
- (g) In the event that any holder of a certificate of membership shall cease to be a member and shall notify the Board of Directors, in writing, of his intention to decline to accept redemption value of his certificate, the value shall inure to the benefit of the Club and shall be used as provided for in (e) above, of this section.

(II) Membership purchased or after January 1, 2015:

Should any holder of a certificate of membership cease to be a member for any cause, the certificate held by that member shall become null and void upon the date said holder ceases to be a member.

- (a) Membership Certificates have no redeemable value upon termination of membership.
- (b) Exceptions include: Any Memberships that were partially paid in 2014. These memberships will fall under Section 5(I)(c).

SECTION 6. In the event of the dissolution of the organization in any manner or for any cause, and in no other event, each holder of a redeemable certificate of membership, shall be deemed to hold a lien upon the proceeds of the sale of the property of the organization after payment of all its just debts and obligations, to the extent of the then redemption value of the certificate, subject to set-off of all debts, dues and obligations owed by the holder to the organization. Certificates of membership only have redeemable value as noted in Section 5.

SECTION 7. Any member failing to pay dues, charges or other indebtedness before the close of business on the first Sunday after the opening day of the Swim Club season shall be assessed a late fee determined by the Board of Directors. Those members who have not settled their indebtedness before the 10th day of the month following that in which a statement of his indebtedness shall have been sent to him by the Treasurer shall be notified that, if such indebtedness shall not be paid within fifteen days thereafter, the delinquent may be suspended by the Board of Directors.

Any person thus suspended shall immediately be notified in writing by the Secretary of his suspension, and if his indebtedness shall not be paid within fifteen days after sending of such notice, he shall cease to be a member. The Directors may reinstate any member upon request and repayment of all indebtedness to the Club.

SECTION 8. For redeemable Membership Certificates only: Upon cessation of membership for any cause, all indebtedness owing to the Club by the member shall be lien upon and charged against the value of his certificate of membership, and the certificate may be taken over by the Club to satisfy such indebtedness. In event of the Club being unable to obtain possession of the certificate, it may be cancelled on the books of the Club. In case of the enforcement of a lien, as above provided, neither the signature of the holder nor the delivery of the certificate shall be requisite to perfect the transfer to the club.

SECTION 9. Members shall be responsible for the payment of all charges or liabilities that may be imposed upon or incurred by members of their family, and for all charges and liabilities imposed upon or incurred by guests introduced by them.

SECTION 10. All fees, dues and other charges mentioned herein are exclusive of taxes imposed by the Federal, State and other governmental bodies and agencies, which taxes shall be paid by the individual member.

SECTION 11. Certificates issued under previous By-Laws of this organization shall be deemed "Certificates of Membership". Disposition of said certificates shall be controlled by the provisions of this article upon adoption.

ARTICLE VIII – MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The meetings of the members of the corporation shall be held annually: a Sunday in August at 2:00 p.m.

SECTION 2. The President may call special meetings of the members of the corporation upon direction of a majority of the Board of Directors, or upon written request of thirty-five (35) voting members in good standing.

SECTION 3. Written notice of every meeting of the corporation shall be given to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting, at least ten (10) days prior to the date named for the meeting.

SECTION 4. Ten (10) voting members shall constitute a quorum to transact business.

SECTION 5. All business laid before the meeting must be decided by a majority vote of the members present, which in all cases must be at least ten (10).

Section 6. Each member shall have one vote. For this purpose a husband and wife of a family membership shall each be considered a member.

ARTICLE IX – DISSOLUTION

SECTION 1. This corporation may be dissolved by a majority vote of all members at any regularly called meeting provided the decision to dissolve has been initiated and evidenced by a petition signed by at least one hundred (100) members and submitted to the Board of Directors at least two (2) weeks before the meeting called to act upon dissolution.

SECTION 2. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of this corporation, after payment of all liabilities, the assets of the corporation shall be disposed of as follows:

- (a) The certificate holders of record at the time of dissolution shall share pro-rata up to the amount of the then redemption value of their respective certificates, and all membership certificates shall be assigned to the corporation and cancelled.
- (b) Assets remaining after retirement of the membership certificates shall be given to such community organizations, charities and projects as the Board of Directors may determine by resolution.

ARTICLE X – MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 1. Each person who acts as Director, Officer, or Employee of the club shall be indemnified by the club against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he is made by a party by reason of his being or having been a Director, Officer, or Employee, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct, and except any sum paid for the club in settlement of an action, suit or proceeding based on gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of duties. The right to indemnification provided herein shall inure to each Director, Officer or Employee, whether or not he is such at the time such costs or expenses are imposed or incurred, and the event of his death shall extend to his legal representatives.

SECTION 2. Any question as to the meaning or proper interpretation of any of the provisions of these By-Laws shall be determined by the Board of Directors, whose decision in such matters shall be final.

SECTION 3. Roberts Rules of Procedure shall govern the procedure to be followed at all meetings of this organization.

ARTICLE XI – AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be amended or a new By-Law made by vote of the majority of the members entitled to vote present at any meeting of the Club, provided that notice of the proposed amendment or By-Law shall have been posted for at least three (3) weeks and mailed by the club to each member entitled to vote at least ten (10) days before such meeting.

CARLISLE SWIM CLUB RULES AND REGULATIONS

Certain rules and regulations have been established for the protection and benefit of all members. This is your pool and no set of rules can be any more effective than your adherence to them. The Swim Club Board is the ultimate authority in the enforcement of all rules set forth below.

Parent, please instruct your children and urge them to observe all rules and obey the instructions of the pool manager and all other employees.

The manager and other authorized personnel are responsible for the enforcement of all rules and regulations of the Carlisle Swim Club.

Any violation of these rules shall be considered sufficient cause for the immediate suspension of pool privileges for the offending members. Successive violations may be considered cause for cancellation of membership.

THE RULES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. All members shall enter the club grounds only through the regular entrance.
2. All vehicles shall be properly parked in the spaces provided for such use.
3. Pool hours:
 - a. 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. daily, weather permitting. All pool closures for weather are at the discretion of the pool manager on duty. Every reasonable attempt will be made to keep the pool hours consistent.

 - c. The pool may be closed for maintenance or emergencies at the discretion of the Manager or the Board of Directors.
 - d. The use of the pool in the absence of an authorized lifeguard is strictly prohibited.
4. No members will be admitted without presenting membership cards. All members will be issued membership cards that must be shown to the attendant at the pool entrance when members sign the daily register. Membership cards are not transferable and adult cards cannot be used for children and vice versa. Lost cards will be replaced by a small fee of ten dollars ($10.00) will be charged and the card will be marked duplicate.
5. Guests
 - a. Local guests, residing within a 25-mile radius of the Swim Club facilities, are restricted to five admissions per season. The number of admissions for out of town guests will be at the discretion of the pool manager.
 - b. Only members 16 years of age and older may sign in guests. All guests must leave when the member who signed them in leaves the pool. Guests who have not yet completed the second grade may only be signed in by adult members (i.e. members 18 years or older).
 - c. Guests must abide by the same rules and regulations as members and are responsibility of members who bring them.
 - d. Guests will be charged the following:
Adults and Children $5.00
Children under three years of age are admitted free.
6. The child care program is available only to:
 - a. Two parent/grandparent/caretaker families in which each parent is gainfully employed for 25 hours or more per week during the swim season; or
 - b. Single parent/grandparent/caretaker families in which the adult caretaker is gainfully employed for 25 hours or more per week during the swim season.
These members may apply by letter to the pool manager for a special non-member babysitter pass to be issued for the full summer. The fee for this pass will be $100.00.
 - (1) The letter of application must identify the baby-sitter by name, address, age and phone number.
 - (2) The baby-sitter must have reached his/her sixteenth year on or before the scheduled opening day of the season and a copy of normally accepted proof of age must be submitted to the pool manager with the letter of application.
 - (3) The baby-sitter shall not be considered a member of the pool. He/she will be issued a special card that must be presented to the manager on duty upon arrival and picked up upon departure each day.

- (4) The baby-sitter shall be required to leave the pool area when either or both of the parents/caretakers are present. It shall be the responsibility of the parents/caretakers to see that this rule is followed. Failure to abide by this rule will result in suspension of the member(s) from the program without refund.
 - (5) If, at any time during the swim season, the babysitter leaves the employ of the members, the members shall immediately notify the manager and the card shall be returned. A new babysitter (meeting the criteria set forth above) may be substituted upon application and upon payment of a $10.00 card and registration fee.
7. No social organization or non-family member affiliated group or association shall be admitted to pool facilities with guest privileges. All family guests exceeding five will be admitted at the discretion of the pool manager.
